

Multiple scales for nature conservation in sustainable forest management: integration and segregation

First event: Integrating Nature Conservation and Involving People in SFM 29 – 31 October 2019 . Rold Forest, Denmark

Program for 5th meeting of the European Network Integrate

Day 1 - 29.10.

Afternoon	Arrival at Aalborg Airport
18.00	Bus leave airport for Comwell Rebild
19.30	Informal dinner
Evening	Informal get together and networking

Day 2 - 30.10.

8.30 – 9.00	Arrival, registration and coffee (for participants arriving in the morning)
9.00 – 9.10	Welcome Director, Danish Nature Agency
9.10 – 9.20	Introduction to the European Network Integrate Dr. Georg Winkel, Head of Office, European Forest Institute (EFI)
9.20 – 9.30	Introduction to the Danish Chairmanship Multiple scales for nature conservation in sustainable forest management: integration and segregation Mads Jensen, Head of Office, Nature, Danish Nature Agency
9.30 – 9.50	Keynote speaker: Integrating nature conservation into multifunctional forest management from the global level to the local forest level Dr. J. Bo Larsen, Dep. for Geosciences and Natural Resource Management (IGN), University of Copenhagen
9.50 – 10.10	Keynote speaker: Integrating biodiversity conservation efforts in a changing production forest matrix: Insights from Sweden. Dr. Adam Felton, Southern Swedish Forest Research Centre, Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences (SLU)
10.10 – 10.30	Questions and discussion
10.30 – 10.45	Introduction to excursion: The Danish approach to close-to-nature forestry and short introduction to Rold Forest Bendt E. Andersen, Head of district office, Danish Nature Agency-Himmerland
10.45 – 11.00	Coffee break
11.00 – 15.00	Excursion Rold Forest (Including lunch). Bus dep. at 11.00 Bendt E. Andersen, Head of district office, Danish Nature Agency-Himmerland
15.00 – 15.30	Coffee break at Comwell Rebild
15.30 – 15.40	Involving stakeholders in nature conservation and forest planning Short introduction to the afternoon program
15.40 – 16.00	Keynote speakers: What do we know about participation by stakeholders and the public in forest planning and nature conservation? Dr. Anna Lawrence, Centre for Mountain Studies, University of the Highlands and Islands, Scotland, UK and Dr. Georg Winkel, EFI

16.00 – 16.15	Short analysis of questionnaires from network members on participation of stakeholders in forest planning. Dr. Agata Konczal, EFI
16.15 – 16.40	Danish stakeholders and their involvement in nature conservation. Mads Jensen, Danish Nature Agency and Torbjørn Eriksen, Danish Outdoor Council
16.40 – 18.00	Integration of stakeholders in planning and decision-making around Europe Short presentations and discussion (max 10 min each). Moderator Dr. Georg Winkel, EFI
19.30 -	Dinner

Day 3 - 31.10

8.30 – 9.00	9 case studies: What drives the integration of nature conservation in forest management in Europe? Dr. Agata Konczal, EFI
9.00 – 9.45	Output of the Danish chairmanship and the INFORMAR final research conference. Dr. Georg Winkel, EFI , Jose Bolanos, EFI Publication plan and contributions from participants <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Abstracts from network members • Co-authoring by researchers • Production of INTEGRATE Network Flyer
9.45 – 10.00	Coffee break
10.00 – 10.30	Evaluation of the INTEGRATE network Michael Hoppe, external consultant
10.30 – 11.45	Evaluation of INTEGRATE network and discussion of “hot topics” for the network to consider Moderator: Dr Georg Winkel, Jose Bolanos, Joost de Koning, Dr. Agata Konczal - Group discussions - Group reporting and plenum discussions - Way forward
11.45 – 12.00	Closing remark Mads Jensen, Head of Office, Nature, Danish Nature Agency
12.00 – 13.00	Lunch
13.00	Departure Bus to Aalborg Airport

For further information go to <https://bit.ly/2ZHMS5H>

Contact: Mogens Krog <mokro@nst.dk>

Facilitated by

